CLASS ACTION

This Document Relates To: All Actions

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF CLASS ACTION

To Potential Members of the Following Class (the “Class”):

All persons and/or entities that purchased or otherwise acquired publicly traded Global Brokerage, Inc., f/k/a FXCM Inc. (“FXCM”) Class A common stock, during the period March 15, 2012 through February 6, 2017, both dates inclusive (“Class Period”).¹

THIS NOTICE MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

YOU HAVE NOT BEEN SUED.

THIS NOTICE IS SENT PURSUANT TO RULE 23 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE AND AN ORDER OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK (THE “COURT”), DATED MARCH 23, 2021. THE PURPOSE OF THIS NOTICE IS TO INFORM YOU OF (i) THE PENDENCY OF THE ABOVE-CAPTIONED CLASS ACTION (THE “ACTION”); (ii) THE CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS DESCRIBED HEREIN, OF WHICH YOU MAY BE A MEMBER (“CLASS MEMBER”); AND (iii) YOUR RIGHT TO BE EXCLUDED FROM THE CLASS.

This case is a securities class action against FXCM and two of its senior executives, Dror Niv (“Niv”) and William Ahdout (“Ahdout”) (collectively, “Defendants”). As further explained below, the plaintiffs have alleged, on behalf of all similarly situated people, that the defendants violated United States securities laws by failing to disclose a conflict of interest relating to their trading platform and misrepresenting certain payments received by FXCM. Plaintiffs allege that the eventual disclosure of those facts at the end of the Class Period caused FXCM’s Class A Stock Price to lose approximately half of its value, damaging class members.

Your options are explained in this notice. To summarize: (i) any Class Member sent this Notice, and who completes and returns an Exclusion Request Form postmarked no later than _____, 2022 to the Notice Administrator, asking to be excluded shall be excluded from the Class; (ii) any judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all Class Members who do not request exclusion; and (iii) any Class Member who does not request exclusion may make a separate appearance in the Lawsuit.

Unless this case is resolved by settlement or otherwise dismissed, Class Counsel must prove the claims against Defendants before the Court. If money or benefits are obtained from Defendants, you will be notified how to seek a share of the recovery.

Any questions not answered by this Notice of Pendency of Class Action (the “Notice”) should be directed to Class Counsel, not to the Court.

WHY YOU ARE RECEIVING THIS NOTICE

Trading records indicate that you may have purchased or otherwise acquired publicly traded FXCM Class A common stock between March 15, 2012 and February 6, 2017. This Notice is being sent to you pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. That rule requires that, upon the certification of a Class, all members of the Class who can be identified and located through reasonable effort shall be provided with certain information regarding the Lawsuit and their rights.

This Notice is given to you in the belief that you may be a member of the Class. To be a Class Member, you must meet all of the criteria listed above. If you do not meet the Class definition, the Notice does not apply to you. If you are uncertain whether you are a Class Member, contact Counsel for the Class (who is listed on page 4 below) or your own attorney. Class Members may be entitled to recover damages on the claims asserted. This Notice, however, is not intended to suggest any likelihood that Plaintiffs or members of the Class will be entitled to recover such damages.

BACKGROUND OF THE LITIGATION

Beginning in February of 2017, multiple securities class actions were instituted on behalf of purchasers of FXCM securities traded between March 15, 2012 through February 6, 2017, alleging violations of U.S. federal securities laws. against defendants including FXCM, Niv (FXCM's Chairman and CEO) and Ahdout (FXCM's Chief Dealer and Managing Director).

The lawsuits allege, inter alia, that the Defendants violated Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, by knowingly misleading investors in Securities Exchange Commission ("SEC") filings and other public statements by falsely claiming that its customers who transacted on FXCM's "No Dealing Desk" ("NDD") platform would be free from conflicts of interest because FXCM would not be on the other side of the trade or have any financial interest in the trade, when, in fact, FXCM had an undisclosed financial interest in the market maker that consistently "won" the largest share of FXCM's NDD trading volume. On February 6, 2017, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") and National Futures Association ("NFA") announced a regulatory settlement, and that they found that FXCM and Defendants Niv and Ahdout had engaged in false and misleading solicitations of FXCM's retail foreign exchange customers by concealing its conflict of interest. FXCM and Defendants Niv and Ahdout did not admit to any alleged wrongdoing as part of the settlement. The settlement imposed a civil penalty of $7 million and prohibited the company from operating in the United States. Plaintiffs allege that upon this news, FXCM securities lost half of their value, damaging FXCM investors.

On May 3, 2017, the Court issued an order consolidated the lawsuits into one case (the "Lawsuit") for all purposes. By the same order, Plaintiffs 683 Capital Partners, LP ("683 Capital") and Shipco Transport Inc. ("Shipco," and together with 683 Capital, the "Lead Plaintiffs"), were designated Lead Plaintiffs, The Rosen Law Firm, P.A. was appointed as Lead Counsel.

On June 19, 2017, the Lead Plaintiffs filed their Consolidated Securities Class Action Complaint against FXCM and certain of its officers and directors. The complaint was filed on behalf of a proposed Class consisting of all persons who purchased FXCM 2.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2018 (the "FXCM Notes") or purchased Class A common stock from March 15, 2012 to February 6, 2017, both dates inclusive. On August 3, 2017, Defendants moved to dismiss the complaint. On March 1, 2018, the Court granted Defendants' motion to dismiss, but granted Plaintiffs leave to amend.

On April 6, 2018, the Lead Plaintiffs filed their Second Amended Consolidated Securities Class Action Complaint against FXCM, Niv, Ahdout, and FXCM's CFO, Robert Lande ("Lande"). The Complaint was filed on behalf of the same proposed Class as the prior complaint. On May 7, 2018, Defendants moved to dismiss the second complaint. On March 28, 2019, the Court denied Defendants' motion to dismiss the second complaint, except as against Defendant Lande and with respect to some of the claims asserted by Plaintiffs.

On May 13, 2019, Defendants filed an answer to the second complaint. Defendants denied that they violated any laws or did anything wrong. They believe that their actions were proper under the federal securities laws and assert several affirmative defenses.

On April 9, 2020, the Lead Plaintiffs, along with Plaintiff E-Global Trade and Finance Group, Inc. ("E-Global") made a motion to certify the Class defined above, and an additional subclass of all persons who purchased FXCM's 2.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2018 ("FXCM Notes") during the Class Period.

On April 17, 2020, the Lead Plaintiffs filed a Third Amended Consolidated Securities Class Action Complaint, the operative complaint herein (the "Complaint"), against FXCM. The Complaint was filed on behalf of the same proposed Class as the prior complaints.

On May 21, 2020, Defendants filed an answer to the Complaint. Defendants continued to deny that they violated any laws or did anything wrong. They continued to believe that their actions were proper under the federal securities laws, and once again asserted several affirmative defenses.

On March 18, 2021, the Magistrate Judge filed a report and recommendation recommending that the class be certified as to the purchasers of FXCM Class A common stock, but not as to the purchasers of FXCM Notes. The Magistrate Judge also recommended appointing Shipco and E-Global as Class Representatives to act on behalf of the Class and appointing The Rosen Law Firm, P.A. as Class Counsel. On March 23, 2021, the District Court Judge accepted the Magistrate Judge's report and recommendation.

On September 8, 2021, Defendants filed a Motion for Summary Judgment on all claims asserted by Plaintiffs. On August 17, 2022, the Court denied Defendants' summary judgment motion.

The Court has instructed the parties to file, by December 14, 2022, a joint pretrial order and other materials in preparation for trial. Trial is presently scheduled to commence on February 13, 2023.

Plaintiffs have requested that the Court declare Defendants' alleged actions to be unlawful, order the payment of damages to the Class, and awarding the Class any reasonable costs and expenses incurred in this Lawsuit. Defendants deny Plaintiffs' claims and deny that Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to any recovery.

No money or relief is available now because the Court has not yet decided the merits of Plaintiffs' claims, and because the two sides have not settled the Lawsuit. There is no guarantee that money or relief will ever be obtained. If they are, you will be notified about how to ask for a share of any recovery.

SUMMARY NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF CLASS ACTION

TO: All persons and/or entities that purchased or otherwise acquired publicly traded Global Brokerage, Inc., f/k/a FXCM Inc. ("FXCM") Class A common stock, during the period March 15, 2012 through February 6, 2017, both dates inclusive.¹

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and an Order of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, that the above-captioned litigation (the "Action") has been certified as a class action.

The Class Representatives, Shipco Transport Inc. and E-Global Trade and Finance Group, Inc., allege on behalf of the Class that FXCM and two of its senior executives, Dror Niv and William Ahdout violated United States securities laws by failing to disclose a conflict of interest relating to their foreign exchange trading platform and misrepresenting certain payments received by FXCM. Class Representatives further allege that the eventual disclosure of those facts at the end of the Class Period caused the price of FXCM's Class A common stock to lose approximately half of its value, damaging class members.

IF YOU ARE A MEMBER OF THE CLASS, YOUR RIGHTS WILL BE AFFECTED BY THIS ACTION. This is only a summary of matters regarding the litigation. A detailed notice describing the litigation and the rights of potential class members, including procedures for participating or seeking exclusion, has been mailed to class members whose contact information is already known. You may download the notice from the settlement administration website, <http://www.strategicclaims.net/FXCM>. You may also obtain a copy of the more detailed notice by contacting the Settlement Administrator by mail, email, or telephone as follows:
